MEMORANDUM FOR:

FROM: George L. Cary, Legislative Counsel
SUBJECT: Meetings with Congressional Staffers

I think it would be useful and appropriate for you to meet the Staff Directors of the House and Senate Select Committees on Intelligence (Bill Miller, Earl Eisenhower; you probably already know Tom Latimer), in addition to those who are concentrating on intelligence collection and production such as Anne Karalekas. In the latter category, I would include Hal Ford, Stan Taylor and John Elliff. I would also suggest that you meet Ralph Preston and/or Chuck Snodgrass of the House Appropriations Committee and renew acquaintances with Guy McConnell on the Senate side.

Re your draft memo to [ ] re meetings with congressional staffers

NOTES

I have discussed this with PLC and DFM, who suggest meetings with the following:
 HPSCI: PLC talked to Latimer and he would like to have [ ] meet with STAT himself, Mike O'Neil, and Pat Long.

SSCI: Per DFM, Bill Miller and Earl Eisenhower are musts. In addition, he feels that [ ] should meet with Childs and Pickett since they will be handling a number of matters with respect to [ ] budget. [ ] should meet with Elliff STAT because of his Collection assignment but because he may be the new Staff Director under Birch Bayh if Miller steps down. Regarding a meeting with the staff of the Subcommittee on Collection, Production & Quality, Hal Ford, ~~staff person~~, of course, should meet with him. If others on that Subcommittee are to be included then we should suggest Ed Levine and Ted Ralston as well as Anne Karalekas and Stan Taylor.

This would mean meetings with 10 people and for a courtesy call on a group that size, it's a lot. Perhaps we could suggest three meetings: Miller and Eisenhower; Ford and his group, including John Elliff; and Childs and Pickett.

In your draft memo you refer to those of the SSCI concentrating on intelligence production. Since [ ] is the Deputy for Collection Tasking this should be mentioned rather than production.
